

REQUIRED OBGYN SKILLS AND ACHIEVEMENTS

STUDENT: _____ ROTATION: _____

INSTRUCTIONS: When you feel competent in the skill or have accomplished the assignment, have the observing faculty or resident initial and date it. This form is given to you to carry with you. Failure to complete all attainable activities may result in a lower evaluation for procedural and professionalism competencies. The information MUST also be recorded in your patient logs where appropriate.

	Initial	Date
1. Be able to gown and scrub for surgery
2. Be able to suture tissue
3. Be able to tie knots
4. Be able to perform a complete, gentle pelvic examination
5. Be able to interpret a vaginal wet smear
6. Observe a laparoscopy
7. Observe a hysterectomy ( any type)
8. Assist on a Cesarean delivery
9. Assist on a tubal interruption
10. Be able to diagnose rupture of membranes
11. Be able to determine cervical dilation
12. Be able to diagnose labor
13. Be able to follow the course of labor using a labor curve
14. Be able to interpret basic patterns in a fetal monitoring strip
15. Perform a spontaneous vaginal delivery
16. Observe a gynecologic ultrasound exam
17. Observe an obstetric ultrasound exam
18. Be able to perform a breast examination
19. Be able to counsel a patient on pregnancy prevention
20. Be able to workup & present a gynecologic patient (SEE GYN MODULE FOR INSTRUCTIONS)
See the following clinical presentations:
21. Abnormal cervical cytology
22. Abnormal uterine bleeding.
23. Pelvic Pain
24. Pregnancy
25. Vaginal Discharge

I understand that topics listed above are covered during this clerkship and are required for graduation. I attest that I have logged each topic listed above into my patient log where appropriate. I understand that failure to do so may result in a lower procedural and professional competency evaluation, and may have to be made up in the fourth year.